

Why do you need to know all this stuff?

- You are not in any trouble and no one is judging you.
- I want to know what you need and how I can help you and your family.
- I want to know what your hopes and dreams are for the future.
- It is my job to listen to what you need and make sure you have a say.

What will happen next?

- I will visit you at home.
- I will ask you and your parents or carers some questions about home and school.
- I will listen to what you say.
- I will make a plan and share this with you and your family later on.

Getting to know you

Hello

my name is

I am

a social worker.

Soon

I will visit your home

to talk to you.

What is a social worker?

A social worker can help you with what you need now and in the future.

What will happen?

You will be asked some questions. Here are some things you might be asked.

Questions I might be asked	Other questions I might like to ask
What do you like to do at school?
What do you like to do with your family?
What do you like to do with your friends?
Do you have friends at school?
Do you need extra help at school?
What are you worried about?
What are you happy about? What's good in your life now?
What would you like to have now?
What are your hopes and dreams for the future?
